FACILITIES

Dining room

Charlie and Jane pride themselves on their cooking so do try to eat in during your stay. Guests dine together around this vast pine table and will enjoy delicious home cooked meals using locally sourced ingredients and home grown vegetables. Dinner is available by prior arrangement and there is also an excellent range of pubs in the area.

Come home after a day on the Quantocks and relax in the large guest sitting room with a wood-burning stove, comfortable sofas, books and music. Spend all day with the newspapers if the weather is bad, or relax with a drink before dinner.

Quantock views

You can walk from the front door of Bashfords and be straight up on the hills (one of the first officially designated Areas of Outstanding Natural Beauty in the UK) where you are likely to see red deer, buzzards and a wide variety of other wildlife. Charlie and Jane can advise on walks in the area and supply maps and guides.
